Hi Sonja,

Thank you for contacting me. I'm glad to hear that you are available on November 10, 2011. The summons has two docket numbers because there are two co-defendants whose cases were scheduled on the same day. The trials will likely be joined.

I will review the files and get back to you about the exact submission numbers. I do know (without looking at the files) that most, if not all, of the drugs that you tested are connected to both defendants...

Thanks!

Kristin

Hi Kristin-

I received your summons for the [REDACTED] case scheduled for trial on November 10, 2011 in Belchertown and wanted to let you know that I am available that day. However, I do have a question regarding the drug lab number listed on the summons. The only number listed is [REDACTED], but when I looked it up, I noticed that Darcy is also listed as one of the co-defendants for [REDACTED]. Are any of these other numbers also part of the case? (I realize that some of the other submissions are either class E's or negative, but with two docket numbers listed on summons I'm wondering if more than one submission is part of the case). Thank you.

-Sonja
